

PART THREE: The Brown Cases, 1950-1952

3480
332

Clark - Cross

① CROSS EXAMINATION

BY MR. MOORE:

Q Dr. Clark, I would first like to inquire as to several questions about yourself. Where were you born?

A I was born in the Panama Canal Zone.

Q You lived in the Panama Canal Zone until you were of what age?

A Until I was, I think, about 4; I am not sure.

Q And then where did you live?

A My parents brought me to New York City.

Q What was the occupation of your parents?

A My father works for the United Fruit Company Steamship Lines. He is superintendent of their offices in Panama.

Q And your mother.

A My mother is a dressmaker.

Q Now, you lived in New York the rest of your life?

A Yes, except for a year that I spent in the West Indies, the period in my life between 8 and 9.

Q In view of your reference to Panama, I must inquire, if you know -- you appear to be of rather light color -- what percentage, as near as you can tell us, are you white and what percentage some other?

A I haven't the slightest idea. What do you